Re: Response by Brix Maritime to EPA's 104(e) Requests for Information re the Portland Harbor
Superfund Site-Enclosing linked document

Dear Ms. Koch:

As promised in our letter to you of September 15, 2008 with which we produced Brix Maritime's responses re the Portland Harbor Superfund site, we have created an electronic document with links to the exhibits, which we enclose on DVD. The DVD contains PDFs of all the exhibits cited in the response along with a corrected copy of the responses and figures and tables cited therein.

Please note: The contents of this DVD in its entirety are to be considered and treated as Confidential Business Information. Brix Maritime reserves the right to supplement these responses.

In the process of preparing this DVD, we discovered minor errors in our original response. These errors including typographic mistakes, unclear citations and the inadvertent production of documents not cited in the text. We are resubmitting our response with the errors fixed. So that you can see what we have corrected, we have used yellow highlighting in the text to show where corrections were made. We have also removed from the linked .pdfs those documents inadvertently provided in the original submission. Please use this corrected version and the enclosed linked .pdfs for your review.
